

PENSACOLA HERITAGE FOUNDATION'S
ReDiscovery Lecture
Fall Series

The Bowden Building, 120 East Church Street

JOHN APPLEYARD LECTURES

Every other Thursday at Noon- September 8th through December 1st

September 8th – “ROLES OF WOMEN”

How the roles of women have expanded in local government, business and public affairs.

September 22nd – “THE EVOLUTION OF HOW WE LIVE”

The transition from 1821 pole and bark homes to modern living, styles, materials, electrical servants, communication, and transportation.

October 6th – “COUNTY GOVERNMENT 1821 - 2011”

How it was, how it has grown, what you get and what you pay.

October 20th – “ESCAMBIA COUNTY'S CULTURE”

How organizations have come and grown from 1885 to 2011.

November 3rd – “PENSACOLA AND THE MOTION PICTURE”

Original peep shows, the Saenger and then the RAVE. Use of cinema in education and training, its presence in TV, and the ability to bring films into the home. Highlights of film stars and methods of production.

November 17th – “NW FLORIDA'S DEVELOPMENT OF PERSONAL HORTICULTURE”

How and why families began to use bushes and flowers, the making of Lawns, how and why and today's problems.

December 1st – “A STUDY OF OUR COMPASSION SERVICES”

How organizations help us help one another, from the the Poor Farm and Pearl Eagen Home to today's array of services and the future of United Way.

LUNCH PROVIDED BY SHORELINE DELI– MENU ON REVERSE SIDE

Pensacola Heritage Foundation ReDiscovery Lecture series begins September the 8th and runs every other Thursday through December the 1st at the Bowden Building located at 120 East Church Street. Lectures begin at noon. No cost to Pensacola Heritage Foundation members, $5.00 for non-members. Lunch from Shoreline Deli is available at a cost of $10.00. Reservations are required. Call 438-6505 to make your reservation.

Not for publication. If you have any questions please contact Debbie Adkins at 438-6505 or 723-9940. Thank you.