

PENSACOLA HERITAGE FOUNDATION'S

ReDiscovery Lecture

Winter Series

The Bowden Building, 120 East Church Street

JOHN APPELYARD LECTURES

Every other Thursday at Noon- January 12th through April 19th

January 12th – “SPANISH KINGS WHO RELATED TO PENSACOLA – 1559-1821”

Biographical sketches of who they were and how they related to Florida.

January 26th – “THE PANTON-LESLIE TRADING POST”

Its functions to 1825 as the trading center with native Americans. Carried on as Forbes & Company, and the final roles in the War of 1812.

February 9th – “CAPTAIN WILLIS GREEN BARROW AND THE STEAMSHIP TARPON”

Its role in Gulf commerce...and how people from Mobile to Carabelle carried on for 34 years. Also involved are the Tarpon's miraculous escapes in great storms and adventures.

February 23rd – “PENSACOLA'S CITY GOVERNMENT UNDER SIX CHARTERS”

Specifics of change, who the key figures were, what was accomplished...and why changes were made.

March 8th – “ANDREW JACKSON'S THREE VISITS TO PENSACOLA”

How each visit changed local and American history. Involved would also be Rachel Jackson's influences.

March 22nd – “STEPHEN R. MALLORY”

One of the community's historical icons...the contributions he made, and how he came to be as involved as he was.

April 5th – “WOODS AND TIMBERLAND”

How over time they made and remade Pensacola's economy. Inserted vignettes on the major industries and people involved...and the ownership of lands throughout the county today.

April 19th – “TERRIBLE FIRES”

How they changed appearance, life and the economy of the Pensacola area.

LUNCHES PROVIDED BY NEW YORKER DELI