

PENSACOLA HERITAGE FOUNDATION
REDISCOVERY FALL/WINTER SERIES

JOHN APPELYARD LECTURES

Thursdays at Noon

The Wright Place at 80 East Wright Street

Oct 4th – THE EARLY AMERICAN PERIOD (1821-1860)

Andrew Jackson and new governments – the 900 citizens, religion – Effect of the Monroe Doctrine – Building the Navy Yard, Chase and the forts – Bank of Pensacola, the railroad...Panic of 1837... New Town – The Mexican War – The 1851 Customs House and government...issues to Civil War.

Oct 18th – THE GREAT LUMBERING ERA

Federal subsidies...mills...shipping and the village – the fishing industry...the four Railroads...public schools...North Hill – changes in governments...utilities...the Opera House.

Nov 1st – AUTOMOBILES...EARLY ELECTRICITY...THE FIRE

New, larger buildings – Agencies of compassion...Another charter...Women's goals...WWI and naval Aviation...The Tarpon...motion pictures...Bayview Park.

Nov 8th – PENSACOLA AND ITS DEALINGS WITH HURRICANES

From 1559 to 2018...happenings and losses.

Nov 29th – TRAVEL FOR PENSACOLIANS – FROM DAYS OF BEING AN ISLAND TO 2018

By water, the Tarpon, street cars and taxicabs. Flight from 1937. Expectations in change.

Dec 13th – A FESTIVAL OF CHRISTMAS...IN THE OLD DAYS

Jan 3^d – PENSACOLA AND SIGNIFICANT BUILDINGS AND WHAT THEY HAVE MEANT TO US

Pensacola in the beginning...the first public structures. The Clubbs Building, Federal Building No.1 the county courthouse, Federal Building No. 2, the Theisen Building, the Seville Tower, Brent and Blount Buildings No. 1 and No. 2 and the Grand Hotel.

Jan 17th – PENSACOLA – THE ETHNIC MIXING

The coming, from the beginning...of orders such as Spanish, British, German, Jewish, Slovakian, Italian, Greek and more. When they came and what they've done.

Jan 31st – THE GROWTH IN LOCAL MANUFACTURING

Early brick and lumber forming, the coming of water power...58 sites in use, the 1880's rise in Steam engines (uses of wood, coal and oil), the electrical age and new technologies and artificial Intelligence.

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED FOR PLANNING PURPOSES
EMAIL Pensacola Heritage at pnsheritage@yahoo.com
Or Phone Reservations 380-7759

DOORS OPEN AT 11:00 LUNCH SERVED AT 11:30
LUNCH PROVIDED BY FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH